

Local Farms & Food Producers

A curated list of farms, producers, and community-based food sources across New Mexico.

Farms & Produce

Schwebach Farm

 <https://www.schwebachfarm.com>

 Moriarty, NM

A family-owned and operated farm serving the Albuquerque and Santa Fe areas. Known for producing some of New Mexico's finest white sweet corn, along with pinto beans, bolita beans, and a wide variety of vegetables. The farm offers tours, u-pick experiences, seasonal events, and a farm market. Chicos are available year-round.

Skarsgard Farms

 <https://skarsgardfarms.deliverybizpro.com>

 505-681-4060

 South Valley (Los Padillas), Albuquerque, NM

A 36-acre farm growing over 75 varieties of fruits, vegetables, and herbs. Skarsgard Farms has served the Albuquerque community for over 9 years and offers a 6-month internship program for those interested in farming and land-based learning.

Old Town Farm

 <https://oldtownfarm.com>

 505-764-9116

 Albuquerque, NM

Provides all-natural produce to the Old Town community. Seasonal availability from May 15 – October 31, with options for delivery or pick-up.

Flora Fauna Farm

 <https://floraf fauna .farm>

 505-508-8551

 South Valley Bosque, Albuquerque, NM

A semi-urban farm and nursery focused on sustainable growing practices and local food systems.

NM Reyes Farm

 505-907-8158

A small, community-focused farm offering organic vegetables, fruits, and fresh eggs. The farm is developing into a cooperative space promoting emotional and physical wellness, with opportunities for internships and community involvement.

Meat, Dairy & Eggs

Keller's Farm Store

 <https://kellersfarmstores.myshopify.com>

Offers one of New Mexico's largest selections of fresh, smoked, and roasted meats.

De Smet Dairy Farms

 <https://www.desmetdairy.com>

 505-916-0475

A USDA-approved raw milk dairy with grass-fed Jersey cows raised without hormones or GMOs. Products are available at the farm and select co-ops across New Mexico, including Albuquerque, Santa Fe, Las Cruces, Los Alamos, and Taos.

Eggs of Los Ranchos

 706-340-7989

A small-scale egg producer with a variety of chicken breeds. Chickens are raised with care in a pesticide-free environment, producing high-quality eggs with rich flavor.

Fiber & Livestock

Westfarthing Farm

 505-281-6582

Specializes in raising sheep, Angora goats, and llamas. Offers raw fleece, mohair, roving, hand-spun yarn, and other wool products.

Community Farms & Education

Rio Grande Community Farms

 505-345-4580

 Albuquerque, NM

Leases land from Albuquerque Open Space to support urban agriculture. Offers CSA programs, educational classes, volunteer opportunities, apprenticeships, and community garden space. Focused on increasing food access and self-reliance for underserved communities.

Neidecker Farms

 505-850-5856

A farm rooted in permaculture and sustainability principles. Focuses on local food systems, reducing environmental impact, and strengthening community economies. Offers delivery and pick-up options with eco-friendly packaging.

Wagner Farmland Experience

 505-459-0719

A 288-acre interactive farm offering u-pick gardens, farm tours, events, markets, and educational experiences. Hosts the annual Viva New Mexico Chile Festival and provides family-friendly agricultural activities.